

Don't Trust The Plan

Pointing out Trumps negative actions in todays world where many Americans are high on hopium makes us very unpopular with some.

Many readers of Truth11.com are Trump supporters, and are caught up in the psyop of trusting the plan. They don't like us pointing out what he is actually doing and we receive a lot of pushback on this subject.

When we point out that he is responsible for his part in rolling out the genocidal injection Covid 'vaccine' that has killed 20 million people world wide and injured 600 million, we are bombarded with emails explaining with complex mental gymnastics how if he had not rolled out a killer vaccine we would have been locked down for 10 years and it would have been worse.

If we choose not to point out the truth about Trumps actions, we could increase our readership and our subscription revenue too heights that would not only cover all of our operating costs, but provide an actual salary for our work.

We could do this to become part of the MAIN STREAM ALTERNATIVE MEDIA, by jumping on the bandwagon that is Trump, with Elon and the rest.

But that is not what true journalism does.

That is not the truth and it is not what we are focused on.

We are not part of the mainstream media, nor the mainstream alternative media. We are true independent media.

And boy are we paying for it. As we always have. But that is ok. We have been on the side of truth no matter what, even when that makes us quite unpopular.

As the main image meme in this article suggests, when preaching what people want to hear you get a large audience, when speaking the truth, the minority is what you get.

Understand something quite clear: We are not haters of anyone. We do not hate Jewish people by calling out the genocide of a tyrannical Zionist Israeli government. We do not hate Trump because he is Trump. We look at the truth, the true actions of people. Not just what they say, but what they do. This is objective journalism.

By focusing on the truth, we are always on the side of right. Because no matter what mental gymnastics or fancy promises and double-talk is done. The actions performed eventually speak clearly for all to see.

I do look at everyones attempt to explain some of Trumps actions. I read your emails and research your links. As with operation warp speed for example, I would love to find a rational reason for his actions. But just so you all know. No matter what I have looked at. NOTHING explains why he promoted and still promotes a killer vaccine. NOTHING.

Including the preposterous notion that by Trump launching a killer vaccine early, spoiled the plans of having 10 years of lockdowns and then a mandatory vaccine with camps for refuseniks. Kill them early, so it does not drag out and kill more later. Utter crap.

Putting the obvious aside; that killing innocent people to spoil the plans of a bigger genocide is ridiculous; what people don't seem to understand is that there was immediate resistance. I was part of that. I refused to wear a mask, or get injected and I screamed it from the rooftops. Reaching 60 million people over the covid period, that Covid was a scam, the vaccine is a killer, lockdowns are not warranted, and go against the principals of freedom outlined in our countries constitutions and charters.

The resistance was (and still is) growing and I can tell you that there is no way lockdowns would have lasted 10 years. The lies were being exposed from the beginning and the momentum of the truth movement is still gaining ground. Therefore the excuse of Trump launching a killer vaccine to stop a 10 year lockdown falls completely flat.

You don't promote a current genocide to point out a future genocide.

This is the main point of Trump's 'warp speed' supporters. It is weak, pathetic and does not stand up to logic or reason.

Choosing the lesser of two evils, giving Trump a pass on the lockdown, the covid scam, and genocidal vaccine is not a solid foundation for support for Trump.

When someone asks why I don't love Trump

The Long Con

- The deep state puts Trump in as controlled opposition
- He unexpectedly (on purpose) gets put into office in 2016
- He launches a deadly vaccine campaign and supports the covid lie
- They obviously rig the 2020 election and put a train wreck Biden administration into office so they can play the the bad guys for 4 years, making Trump look like the lesser of two evils.
- Then everyone begs for Trump, making him more powerful and less likely to be scrutinized for his actions, as "it could be worse!".
- That brings us to now, the long con is about to play out. Trump, the father of a genocidal vaccine, has a loyal following of logic broken supporters, who forgive him from vaccine genocide which has broken their brains. Now what will he do with this power?

Actions Speak

Let us see what he does. He is already showing his continued allegiance to big pharma, and supporting Israel's genocide campaigns.

In my estimation, he will move swiftly to bring Americans and the world to places they do not want to be, banking on the momentum of the long con, to enable his new actions.

Last time he brought vaccine genocide. Where will he bring us this time in warp speed?

Based upon his actions to date, including his recent appointments, he will march the world into military subscription to fight Israel's wars. He will also give all responsible for the covid scam and genocidal vaccine a pass.

Therefore don't blindly trust the plan, look past his words and scrutinize his actions. Don't be swiftly swept away on the red wave, as it could be a wave of more bloodshed at warp speeds.

We the readers/subscribers appreciate or maybe do not appreciate your comments, but this is what freedom of speech is about, to express ourselves. I for one do not fall into the trap you are trying to preach to those that support and voted for Trump. Question is, if Trump is part of the Deep State then who should have we voted for the President? Hmmmm...Perhaps you are DS in disguise.

■ Our Response

Dylan Eleven • Truth11.com

We are not deep state, just FYI, far from it. Regarding who to vote for: that is the problem with the lesser of two evil system. We were not given a real choice. Personally I don't think any of them should be in control. My own views are self government, using natural law as our guide is the way to go. I don't think anyone should rule over another. Which is far from a deep state way of thinking. All the best to you, Thank you for your comment.
